

XM Radio has delivered on a great concept, and the NAB should evolve and offer something better (if they can) rather than take something good away from hundreds of thousands of consumers by getting the government to do their bidding. This is America, after all, and capitalism should be allowed to work. XM is not being unfair in this endeavor.

Respectfully,

Ron Workman, Jr., MD